

Feng Yun Summer Go Camp in China 2007

June 23 – July 20, 2007

Feng Yun Go School was founded in 2002 with the goal of spreading and promoting Go. Many of our students have shown rapid improvement and have won local and national championships – but our greatest satisfaction comes when any student learns to enjoy the game.

Feng Yun Go School added summer Go camp in China in order to have an intensive Go training during the summer. After a successful summer camp last year in Beijing, this year, we will cooperate with Hang Zhou Go School who has a brand new 34-story building located by the beautiful Qian Tang River. In addition to an opportunity to visit China, our program offers students a great experience of studying both Go and Chinese culture, and playing Go with local go players. Be prepared to study hard in the summer camp. Feng Yun 9-dan professional will be the camp director. Along with the help from local Go school teachers, we will help you make improvement on Go. Besides a lot of Go, of course you will have time to play with your old or new friends, go to local attractions, taste delicious Chinese food, see the museums and learn some Chinese and Chinese cultures. The co-organizer is Hang Zhou Go School.
